

U.S. Catholic leaders want President Obama to make immigration reform a priority

Published on Wed, Jan 06, 2010

Stepping up the pressure on President Obama, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops on Wednesday urged the administration to make legalization of millions of undocumented immigrants a priority to enhance national security and improve the nation's battered economy.

Published in the Miami Herald

Source URL:

<http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/newsroom/clip/us-catholic-leaders-want-president-obama-make-immigration-reform-priority>