

Kavitha Sreeharsha, Esq.

Submitted by Anonymous on Mon, Jul 23, 2012

Kavitha Sreeharsha is a Senior Staff Attorney at Legal Momentum's Immigrant Women Program. Her work focuses on immigration policy advocacy and technical assistance relating to immigrant women issues. Her advocacy includes co-chairing the Freedom Network (USA), the only human-rights based anti-trafficking coalition in the United States. Kavitha received her J.D. from U.C. Hastings and her B.A. from U.C. Berkeley. She is a recipient of several awards including the 2004 Unity Award from the Coalition of Minority Bar Associations and the 2007 Tanya Nieman Award from Partners Ending Domestic Abuse in San Francisco. Kavitha is based in Washington, D.C.

- Reforming America's Immigration Laws: A Woman's Struggle [1] (IPC Perspectives, June 2010)

Source URL: <http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/kavitha-sreeharsha-esq>

Links:

[1] <http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/special-reports/reforming-americas-immigration-laws-womans-struggle>