

Mass. group registers 4,000 immigrants as voters

Published on Immigration Policy Center (<http://www.immigrationpolicy.org>)

Mass. group registers 4,000 immigrants as voters

Published on Wed, Oct 17, 2012

IPC statistics were used in this Boston Globe article about registering naturalized citizens to vote:

"The Immigration Policy Center says naturalized Americans represent about 12 percent of registered voters in Massachusetts, including their children born in the United States since 1965."

Published in the The Boston Globe

Source URL:

<http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/newsroom/clip/mass-group-registers-4000-immigrants-voters>