

Immigrants now make up more than 4 percent of S.C. population

Published on Fri, Sep 18, 2009

Immigrants make up more than 4 percent of South Carolina's population, according to census figures, and Latinos and Asians have a significant effect on the state's economy.

Published in the Independent Mail

Source URL:

<http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/newsroom/clip/immigrants-now-make-more-4-percent-sc-population>